1. Minutes of Previous Meeting

The Minutes of the last meeting were read and signed as correct.

2. Matters Arising

A letter from Mrs M. Smith was read out in which she stated that the reflector post erected on the garden bend of her property had been knocked over on at least two occasions and she asked that the matter be looked at again. The Clerk was asked to again write to Mr Kisby confirming that councillor Woollard had already spoken to him again and requesting that he should visit the site to see the problem. It was also suggested that an additional reflector post be placed nearer the village.

3. Planning Applications

Planning applications have been received from Mr M. Cannon (renewal of outline planning permission), Mr Linwood (alterations to 38 Great Lane) and Mr R. Hills (erection of garage) and these were all approved.

4. Sports Day

The Chairman reported that he had been approached by several people from the village who expressed interest in holding another Sports Day, similar to the one held on Jubilee Day. It was resolved that this should take place, the date fixed being May 29th.

5. Cheques

The following cheques were authorised and signed. Eastern Electric £21.97, Petty Cash £5.

There being no further business, the Chairman declared the meeting closed.
