

Here we see the "Team Leaders" who instructed villagers on what was needed to be done. David Thomas, Danuta Gibson, Graham Lingley, David Elliott, Jenny and John Reed, Andrew Trump, Nick Acklam (Project Leader), Steve Boreham and Lois Baker (from the National Trust)

Claire Acklam in charge of sustenance

24Acres
Woodland
Planting Day
Saturday
7th December
2013

The virtually blank canvas . . . 1,800 holes having been augured previously

Off we go!

Hugh de Lacy

David Elliott

Steve Boreham - who helped Nick Acklam to manage the project

Pam King working with Alison Lewis

Hazel Lingley

Ron and Penny with Andrew Trump

Danuta Gibson

Hannah Baldwin with Muzzle

Alice Trump having her baked potato with Lily Steed

Charles Moseley well prepared if big wine bottles appear

Gwylim Davies and Graham Lingley

Then, just when we thought we'd never get it completed - the cavalry arrived from Swaffham Prior school!

So impressive that these kids took time out of the planting to study the laws of gravity

Lois from the NT (a HUGE positive influence on this project) and some of the kids